

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Monmouth's Card To-Day Made Up of Over-Night Events.

While Good Horses Are Entered, No Sensation Is Promised.

The programme at Monmouth Park to-day is made up of over-night events. The distances of the races vary from a five-furlong dash to a mile and a sixteenth.

Although the class of horses entered is good, the racing does not promise to be sensational. Several horses in the different races so far outclass their opponents that the latter appear to be at the mercy of the best horse. As often happens, however, these "sure thing" races often develop into a surprise. Such may be the case to-day.

Following are the selections:

First Race—Purse $1,000, for two-year-olds and three-year-old fillies.

J. F. Pepper's Distinct.

Oncok Stable's Mac Queen.

M. A. H. & H. Morris' La Misericordia.

Walcott & Campbell's Black Hawk.

Gideon & Dale's Miss Podium.

W. P. Ruth's Martinique.

B. H. Hawk's entry to win the opening scrabble.

Miss Podium may get the place, and La Misericordia ought not to be worse.

Second Race—Purse $1,000, for beaten horses, six furlongs.

G. Gaines' Perseverance.

T. P. O'Hara's Vicksburg.

J. A. H. & H. Morris' Antonine.

G. Gaines' Daily's Captain.

McFarland & Wiliams' Hugh Penny.

Brown & Rogers' Afternoon.

M. Doyle's Star.

Third Race—Purse $1,000, for beaten horses, six furlongs.

F. D. Swigert's Michael.

A. C. Peacock's Whimbrel.

E. F. Dryden's Antonine.

Hawkins Stable's Julian.

Bareback should win the race.

Fourth Race—A sweepstakes of $150 each, with $1,000 added; handicap for two-year-olds and three-year-olds.

J. A. H. & H. Morris' Melody.

E. F. Dryden's Terpsichore.

R. K. Vining's Nettie.

Hawkins Stable's Dixie.

Hawkins, Terpsichore and Nettie appear to be the best chances in the fourth race.

Yester evening to have our little money in winning the second race, Star Mary may be the pick of the bunch.

The third race is for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a sixteenth.

A. E. Swigert's Michael.

J. A. H. & H. Morris' Antonine.

E. F. Dryden's Julian.

Bareback should win the race.

Fourth Race—Purse $1,000, for all ages, five furlongs.

F. D. Swigert's Michael.

J. A. H. & H. Morris' Correction.

E. F. Dryden's Joe Cott.

Third Race—Purse $1,000, for all ages, five furlongs.

Hawkins Stable's Sam Walker.

Peter Wadlow's Conqueror.

Best Stable appears to be the winner, and Anna B. may finish third.

Clifton Selections.

An unusually interesting programme is offered by the Clifton Jockey Club for to-day, and the racing should be fair above the average. The fields are all very large, and the horses belong to high class, insuring a good and exciting meeting.

The invincible handicap is the feature of the card, and it has some good spinners in the card, and the horses are well represented.
